| MODULE	E-PROCUREMENT
COORDINATOR	Prof. Roger Bickerstaff
LECTURERS	Roger Bickerstaff – Isabel Rosa
EMAIL	roger.bickerstaff@twobirds.com; darosa.isabel@outlook.com
LECTURE TITLE	E-Procurement: Policies, Legal Framework, Governance and Technical Issues
OBJECTIVES	To give attendees an understanding of the policies and legal framework associated with the implementation and operation of eProcurement in public sector bodies, including the relevant approaches taken by the EU Commission and non-EU countries, such as Korea and Jordan. Also, to give a practical understanding of issues associated with the implementation of eProcurement systems in practice, some emerging standardisation arrangements and to provide an understanding of the governance structures that can be used to effectively implement eProcurement.
DESCRIPTION	(Prof. Bickerstaff) _29 March : Morning - Electronic procurement and Public Policy_ • EU Community policy: eprocurement as an enabler of Digital Government • Eprocurement outside the EU: World Bank and UNCITRAL • Korean approach to eprocurement • Group discussion: benefits and disadvantages of eprocurement _29 March : Afternoon - Elements of electronic procurement_ • End to end eprocurement • E-auctions • Dynamic purchasing systems • E-Certis • E-invoicing • Electronic evaluation • Group discussion: opportunities offered by new technologies (blockchain, artificial intelligence and internet of things) in public procurement _30 March : Morning_ • EU legal framework for eprocurement • Mandatory obligations for contracting authorities • Mandatory obligations for eprocurement systems • Case study: application of the EU legal framework in practice _30 March : Afternoon - Comparison of the National Approaches to Implementation of Eprocurement_ • Centralised approaches - Korea and Estonia • Decentralised approaches - Portugal and the UK • World Bank – Evidence from Public Works in India and Indonesia

	• Group discussions: issues arising in implementation of eProcurement in the students countries - current experiences and future plans: the role and scope of transparency through e-procurement 31st March: Morning • US proposals for e-procurement – public authority access to commercial ecommerce solutions; Comparison of US, EU and UK approaches • Group discussion/exercise - working towards an approach to a more modern public eprocurement regime • E-procurement: transparency and public accountability Ukraine-Prozorro; UK proposals for reform – the UK Green Paper; Honduras • Group discussion/exercise – transparency and confidentiality (Prof. Rosa) 31st March: afternoon - Governance of Electronic Procurement • Electronic Procurement Life Cycle • Electronic Procurement Business Models • From Electronic Public Procurement to Digital transformation of Public Procurement • Group exercise 1st April: Afternoon: Transparency and accountability • The role of standard notices in the EU context • Contract Registers • Standardization initiatives • Beneficial ownership 1st April: Morning: Case study discussion and presentation • Governance of Digital Transformation • Group Project • Projects' presentations and discussions • Wrap up
CLASS MATERIAL	• PowerPoints • Case Study • Reading List